Location

The thriving Abbeyhill and Easter Road area lies just to the east of Edinburgh city centre and multiple bus routes passing along London Road and Easter Road offer quick access to and from the city centre and beyond. Easter Road increasingly provides a diverse array of independent specialist shops and cafes, plus a Lidl supermarket, whilst nearby Meadowbank Shopping Centre includes both Sainsbury's and Lidl along with other High Street brands and a new gym. The general area continues to develop with new small businesses and shops serving day-to-day needs, whilst the new Meadowbank Sports complex with gym is also readily accessible. The bars, cafes and diverse leisure options offered by The Omni Centre, the new St James Quarter, Leith Walk and Broughton Street are all within walking distance, as are The Scottish Parliament and the open green space of Holyrood Park.

Here is an opportunity to acquire a property that offers super potential to form a very attractive home with appeal to first-time buyers, downsizers or investors. The ground floor property is quietly situated to the south-facing rear of a traditional stone-built tenement, ideally located within a cul-de-sac off Easter Road and perfectly positioned for accessing abundant shopping, services and transport links, all in a vibrant area of Edinburgh that continues to see positive development.

Although in need of interior refurbishment, the flat does benefit from gas central heating (with a combi boiler) and double glazing. There are also original wood panel doors and ceiling cornice, plus polished wooden floorboards. Both the living room and bedroom feature deep recess areas that offer space for creative use, such as for dining, home office, dressing room, or remodelling to form an open-plan kitchen. Reconfiguration of the interior space to suit individual needs might be possible subject to any necessary consent.

Edina Place is a quiet cul-de-sac off Easter Road. The wide, cobbled street with Listed 19th century architecture on the opposite side from the subjects provides a relatively light and pleasing ambience.

There is a southerly facing, enclosed communal drying green to the rear, which is overlooked by the property.

Making the Most of Your Property Search

Every stage of your property journey matters. Here are some friendly tips to help you navigate the search process effectively and considerately.

HOME REPORT OR VIEWING FIRST?: It's a common question, and there's no absolute, right or wrong answer. Home Reports offer valuable insight into a property's condition, but they can sometimes highlight issues in a way that feels overly cautious. So, some people decide against viewing a property without fully understanding the true nature of issues they perceive to be too negative. Additionally, Home Reports don't cover other, equally important aspects like the neighbourhood, atmosphere, or layout—all of which can only be truly appreciated in person.

If you're intrigued by a property, consider booking a viewing early on. Seeing it for yourself can help put the details of the Home Report into context and give you a more balanced impression, not just of the property, but also of Home Reports generally.

ARRANGING A VIEWING: There are often a few ways to book an appointment. If a phone number is provided, it's usually the quickest and simplest way to find a mutually convenient time. In any case, follow the booking instructions shown on the website. Booking a viewing isn't a commitment to buy—it's simply your chance to explore the property, so don't be bashful! Just remember that sellers and agents may have other commitments, so a little flexibility goes a long way.

BE COURTEOUS WITH COMMUNICATION: If you've requested information or expressed interest in viewing but change your mind, that's perfectly fine—just let the other party know. Texting can be a good option. A quick message saves time and avoids unnecessary follow-ups. It's a small courtesy that's always appreciated.

DURING THE VISIT: You're stepping into someone's home, so punctuality and respect make a big difference. If you're running late, give a quick call or text. There may be other viewers scheduled before or after you, so sticking to your appointment time helps everyone stay on track.

AFTER YOUR VIEWING: Prospective buyers are strongly advised to have their solicitor note interest as soon as possible, especially where a closing date may be set
